

Marion SAINTGERY is a qualified clinical psychologist, couple and family therapist. She specialises in issues related to expatriation.

She accompanies her patients from her private practice and all over the world by videoconference.

Experience :

- 17 years of private practice as a clinical psychologist: individual, couple and family therapy,
- Psychological assessments of children in schools, follow-up and referrals,
- Associate Clinical Psychologist at Interhealth Worldwide: psychological assessment, preparation and support of healthcare personnel on mission on Ebola issues,
- Referent psychologist for various international humanitarian organisations, support to agents in crisis situations in the field,
- Supportive therapies in prison settings in Africa,
- Psychologist at the Red Cross (AIDS Ambulatory Treatment Centre), observance, therapeutic education, individual therapy, in Gabon.
- Family and couple therapist at the C.E.F.A. (Family Therapy Centre - Association) for 6 years, in Paris, and Co-co-facilitator of the training course.
- Psychologist in the Medical Psychology Department of the Lapeyronie Hospital in Montpellier (Depression and suicide attempts).